Inspired by the nu-disco, Italo-disco, and hip house sounds from both contemporary music and the golden era of dance music (1987-1999), "Kontrolling You" brings together three of Canada's most prodigious acts in electronic dance music – Melleefresh, MC Flipside and Chris Vench.

The track brings a lot of old school house vibes, the ones that some of us (me, me) are missing. That smooth groove and those ambient synths and stabs.

"MY INTENT WAS TO CREATE A FUNKY AND SEXY INSTRUMENTAL THAT COULD CAPTURE MELLEEE'S SASSY FLOW WITH MY HYPNOTIC URBAN EDGE," SAYS FLIPSIDE

And they really managed to do that! The result is a work of house music that is at once original and familiar, that weaves together both digital and analog sounds. Definitely not a track to miss for any house lover out there. Listen it below and grab your own copy from Beatport via Play Records.
