In a way, Melleefresh is one of the pivotal figures in North American dance music.

After all, the producer uncovered deadmau5, an artist who - like it or not - has dominated clubs, stages and arenas across the continent for the past five years.

A close collaborator, Melleefresh has stuck to her underground roots. New track 'My Life (Without You)' finds Melleefresh working with Alixander III (of much lamented house quartet Azari & III).

Out on May 5th via Play Records, it's a seedy, in-yr-face piece of rambunctious house music. Complete with remixes from Bobmo and Michele Pinna, Clash is able to premiere the original version below.

But wait! We've also managed to secure a playlist from Melleefresh - check out her picks below.

LE YOUTH - (Ben Pearce Remix) - COOL (Sony Music)

LE YOUTH have a cool retro/modern sound. I really like the original to 'COOL' and when I heard Ben's remix, I thought, he just iced the cake!

Kerri Chandler - Rain (Nervous)

Kerri is an old friend of mine and has been dominating the house scene for years. 'Rain' is such a classic and timeless to me.

MelleeFresh & SpekrFrks - Wishing (Play Records)

This is a new genre for me but I love it. Magical sexy 'glitch hop' for those shooting stars at night!

Alex Metric - Hope (Atlantic)

When you own a label you have moments when you hear a song and think, I wish that was one of my releases... 'Hope' is one of these tracks.

Dusky - Careless (Simple Records)

This is a straight up dance floor banger. Everything about it says shut up and dance!

Todd Terje - Delorean Dynamite (Olsen Records)

I own a Delorean so when I first heard this, I thought what perfect music to accompany a road trip! Also, Todd Terje makes great music.

Deadmau5 - 1981 (Mike Vale Vs Jerome Robins Mix) (Play Records)

This is a classic Deadmau5 track reinvented and taken to a new level by Mike Vale and Jerome Robins.

Maya Jane Coles ft. Miss Kitten - Take A Ride (I Am Me)

I have a lot of respect for Maya and always like to support female DJs - there's not many of us out there!

Julio Bashmore ft. Jessie Ware - Peppermint (Boardwalk Records)

The combination of Julio Bashmore's banging beats and Jessie Ware's divine vocal makes 'Peppermint' a smash. Also, I think the video for this is awesome.

Tensnake ft. Nile Rodgers and Fiora - Love Sublime (Virgin EMI)

I like it when different worlds collaborate and with two great musicians like Nile Rodgers and Tensnake the outcome is... sublime.

Disclosure - When A Fire Starts to Burn (PMR)

These guys are dominating the dance scene and this tracks brings a nice bit of Chicago house to the mainstream.
